

Mr. Paul T.C. Fung is the C.E.O. of Photon Link Limited, a commercial datacenter service provider, and also the Director of Datayard Systems Limited, an open source platform developer, supporting web portals and secured office firewall gateway servers, and its related web application developments.

Mr. Paul Fung

*Vice Chairman, Fintech
Committee, Smart City Consortium*

He joined the HK Blockchain Society as Vice President to further his interest on FinTech developments and in Oct, he was appointed as a member of Academic Advisory Board in HK Shue Yan University, Department of Economics and Finance, contributing his knowledge on FinTech helping the university to setup related courses.

Paul is also having an active participation in the community work, he is the founder and founding president of The International Federation of Creativity and Technology (IFOCAT), who is aiming at building a platform to bridge different groups of creative elite to make changes happen, and are now serving as the Honorable President, to keep pushing the work of IFOCAT.