

Dr. Ir. Rosiah Ho
CEng, RPEng, CPEng

Prof. Ir. Rosiah Ho CEng, CPEng, RPEng

Dr. Ir. Rosiah Ho has over 20+ years of experience in both industry & higher education sector of HKSAR. Before he joined Lingnan, Dr. Ho has leaded & implemented many mission critical international well-known ICT & inter-networking projects in HK and overseas. He is currently working in Lingnan University as:- (i) Associate Director of the LEO Dr David P. Chan Institute of Data Science; (ii) Special Coordinator for University Knowledge Transfer & Industry Liaison of LU-SCUT Joint Research Centre for Greater Bay Area & HK (Social Policy and Governance). He specializes in the field of digital transformation & application of latest ICT Smart and bigdata technologies for carrying out knowledge transfer and leads applicative researches to solve real world problem for the best benefits of the community. Dr. Ho is committed to proactively contribute & connected the University with the Community via U2I and/or I2U research/projects/ KT collaborations. He is an innovative and envision leader for advocate KT as the core pillar of the University and has made substantial contributions in research and connecting industry/community to support University's missions. He is a seasoned chartered & professional engineer in IEE(UK), HKIE(electronic & ICT) & BCS(UK)(IT/IS) and HKCS(ICT) & has represented the University in contributing various HK well known consortiums, forums, committees & task forces as professional/honour consultant, advisor, steering committee members and chairperson.