

Hong Kong as an International Financial Centre for China and for the World

HKIMR/Lingnan University conference: 10 December 2010 (2:30 pm) at 2IFC in Central, Hong Kong

A research team at Lingnan University recently completed a study on “Hong Kong as an International Financial Centre for China and for the World”. The study, funded by the RGC, is the first systematic examination of Hong Kong’s strengths and strategic needs as an International Financial Centre.

On 10 December 2010, the Hong Kong Institute for Monetary Research (HKIMR), jointly with Lingnan University, will host a conference centered on the presentation and discussion of this work.

The conference programme includes:

- Opening remarks by Professor K. C. Chan, Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury;
- Overview of the research project and main conclusions and recommendations, by Professor Jesús Seade of Lingnan University;
- Discussion Panel with:
 - Mr. Michael Buchanan, Managing Director and Chief Economist of Goldman Sachs Asia,
 - Mr. Matthew Harrison, Head of Research and Corporate Development at the HKEx, and
 - Professor Leonard Cheng, Dean of the Business School, HKUST.
- Questions and answers with participants in the audience

The conference and discussion will be chaired by Dr. Dong HE, Director of HKIMR and HKMA Executive Director (Research).

The Lingnan University research team and its hosts for this event at the HKIMR have the pleasure to invite interested participants to this event. Please find below information on the seminar and the relevant contacts and form for registration:
