

Ma Yiu Tim, Jimmy, SBS, JP

Dr. Ma, formerly Legal Adviser to the Legislative Council Secretariat (1996 to 2015), is currently in private practice as a barrister at the Hong Kong Bar and as a Greater Bay Area Lawyer at a law firm in Dongguan, Guangdong Province.

Dr. Ma obtained the degrees of LL.B. and P.C.LL. from The University of Hong Kong, LL.M. from University College London, and LL.B. and LL.D. from Peking University.

Dr. Ma's public service includes serving as a member of the Council of Lingnan University, a director of the Lingnan Education Organization Limited, and Rotarian of Rotary International District 3450 (in Hong Kong). He is the Honorary Treasurer of Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators, Legal Adviser to Hong Kong Mediation Centre, and a Council Member of the China Law Society. He became a member of the Election Committee of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region in September 2021. He is a Chairman of the Buildings Appeal Tribunal, Deputy Chairman of the Board of Review under the Inland Revenue Ordinance, and a Member of Non-Insurance Authority Eligible Disciplinary Panel Pool.

Dr. Ma was appointed Justice of the Peace in 1998, and was awarded the Silver Bauhinia Star in 2015. He is an Honorary Fellow of Hong Kong Translation Society.