Brief Course Description

This course provides opportunities for students to dialogue with policy practitioners with expertise in a few major social and public policy areas, namely, education, health, housing and social security. Special lectures, class discussions, field visits, seminars will be organised for students. More specifically, students will be engaged in field observations and field visits to related government offices, political parties, research and policy institutes, NGOs and other economic and social organizations, including the Policy Innovation and Co-ordination Office, the Committee of Professional Development of Teachers and Principals, Hospital Authority, Elderly Commission, and Hong Kong Council of Social Service. In addition, the course will also invite some experts in social policy to give lectures about their studies. Potential invited speakers with rich policy making and policy implementation include Professor MOK Ka Ho, Professor David PHILLIPS, Professor Alfred CHAN, and Professor HO Lok Sang (experts in different social and policy areas), Professor LAU Siu Kai and Professor LEE Ming-kwan (formerly Principal Officers of Policy Innovation and Co-ordination Office of HKSAR Government). Senior retired government officials or key chief-executives of NGOs will be invited to share their management experiences in social / public policy.

Aims

This course aims to enable students engage in comparing and contrasting major social policy issues with actual field observations, professional visits, and dialogues with practitioners, and
